American Spectacle - September 8th, 10:00am

American painters of the late 19th century explore competing visions of American culture and identity through works of art that remain relevant today. From sweeping landscapes to still-life paintings the striking images in this exhibit reveal a variety of ways artists struggled to define the nation. These artworks depict images of American spectacle-dramatic moments, places, and events in U.S. history, during periods of immense change, and history in progress.

Lunch Following, There will be a drawing for one free lunch.

We will be leaving the Senior Center at 10:00am

Transportation is provided by Smart Bus. Cost is $2.00 + lunch
